

Article I - Name

The name of this organization will be Muddy Buddys, Inc dba Muddy Buddys Jeep Wrangler Club. The club shall operate under the Laws of the State of Ohio for Non-Profit Organization 501c7, Social & Recreational Club.

Article II - Purpose

The purpose of the Muddy Buddys Jeep Wrangler Club is to bring off-road enthusiasts together for the enjoyment and betterment of the hobby of off-roading and to promote the legendary Jeep vehicle. This will be done through our website, message forums, social gatherings, events, off-road adventures and regular club meetings. Muddy Buddys will always promote friendship, knowledge and a family-oriented atmosphere.

Article III - Objective

The objective of the club is to promote enjoyment, friendship and family values through organized events, as well as preservation of trails and the hobby of off-road recreation in a safe, environmentally friendly manner. It is our intent to work for more open trails, to work with individuals and organizations to open and maintain trails for ORV use. When called upon, members of the Muddy Buddys will offer logistical and transportation support to local, State, or governmental agencies in emergency situations or other times of need. The club may host events that support and promote other non-profit organizations that align to the same values and goals as determined by the Club Officers.

Article IV - Membership Qualifications and Standards

Must own a Wrangler style Jeep or any vehicles in the evolution of the Jeep Wrangler including but not limited to MBs, CJs, YJs, TJs, JKs, JLs, JTs and any other model released under the Wrangler platform. In the event more than one person owns the same Jeep, both individuals may be a member in good standing when they submit separate membership form(s) and pay annual dues. Vehicle must be four-wheel drive to participate in trail rides and have accessible tow points. No vehicle modifications are required to join but are strongly suggested for attending trail rides. Members must be at least 18 years of age with a valid license and insurance. A club decal will be provided and must be applied, in plain sight, to their Jeeps. Decal must be removed if the vehicle is sold or membership is revoked. All members must fill out an application and sign a permanent liability waiver that will be placed in their file. Follow trail etiquette.

Article V - Dues

Club dues are $24 dollars each year due October first of each year. New members are required to pay a one-time $10 dollar processing fee. To maintain good standing, dues must be paid no later than October 31st of each year. Failure to pay by the deadline will result in a $10-dollar late fee. Renewal Membership fees are not pro-rated throughout the year; the full $24 dollars are due for renewal (plus $10-dollar late fee if after October 31st). Failure to pay dues will result in a suspended membership and the loss of all club benefits i.e. discounts, access to member's only forum(s) and member only activities, etc. Dues and processing fees are non-refundable. Members fulfilling the positions of President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, or other elected positions will not be required to pay dues; due to time and commitment of their position during the term. Example of dues schedule for new members January $28, February $26, March $24, April $22, May $20, June $18, July $16, August $14, September $12, October $34, November $32, December $30. These are the amounts to be paid by new members based on when they join. When dues are paid, each member will get their membership card and begin to receive club benefits. A member must be in good standing to Vote in elections and other binding voting opportunities that may arise. Voting is based on DUES PAID Membership, one vote per dues paid member. Access to any social media sites will be restricted to the registered club member plus one other person; the plus one information will be kept with membership information.

Article VI – Membership Code of Conduct

There will be no consumption of alcohol during club sanctioned events or organized trail rides or events held by other "clubs or organizations". Non-driven events are not included. There will be no underage drinking at any event. Any use or possession of illegal drugs is strictly prohibited and will be cause for immediate termination of membership. Unruly or disrespectful behavior by club members during club sanctioned events or on the message forum or other social media will not be tolerated, including extreme and constant profanity. As a member you are responsible for conducting yourself in a manner that represents the club as a responsible and respectable organization. Firearm possession must follow state and local regulations. Members will not knowingly trespass. While trail riding, if a member ventures on private land or a closed area and an officer of the law issues a citation, arrest or confiscates the vehicle; liability is bore solely by the owner or the person doing the action. Members are to follow rules and regulations of property and/or its owners. Club membership can be revoked for violations to this policy. All codes of conduct and bylaws also apply to any passenger or non-member guest. Club members will be held responsible for all passengers or guests that accompany them to an event. MUDDY BUDDYs is not responsible for any actions or opinions of any political or non-political organization that any member is associated with.

Article VII – VOLUNTEERS

It is highly recommended that all members choose to volunteer throughout events and activities hosted by the Club. Our club is built on volunteering, and it fosters an environment of friendship and comradery. If you register to volunteer for a particular position, it is expected you will arrive at a timely time and work through the entire shift. Volunteers (at non-riding events) shall NOT consume alcohol during their volunteer period or prior to their work shift. Volunteers shall conduct themselves in a professional and friendly way. We want everyone to feel welcomed and encouraged to explore their love for Jeep Life/Family.

Article VIII - Violations and consequences of bylaws and code of conduct

First offense->Verbal warning by the officers of the club. Second offense->Written warning by the officers of the club. Copy will be placed in the member's file. Third offense->Constructive council with officers with criteria to improve club members standing. These criteria will be reviewed in three months by officers. During this three-month time members will be placed on probation. Failure to appear for the council will result in a Board vote to remove said member. Severe cases can be brought to immediate Board vote to remove or revoke membership. Removed members can be reinstated after one year. They must complete a 3-month probation period after that annual period, and the board will vote to reinstate.

Article IX - Trail Etiquette

The following items must be available and/or applied to your Jeep to participate in trail rides. It is highly recommended that all members attend the Trail Etiquette Class provided by the club. This class is generally conducted in spring and fall Trail Etiquette information is available online via Members Only FB and Website. Make sure the vehicle is in good mechanical condition and trail ready. Tow hooks, tow strap without metal hooks, first aid kit, fire extinguisher, extra fluids, carry your own tools and bring a trash bag. Stay on clearly marked trails and obey property signs. Follow winch safety rules. Be friendly and courteous to all trail users, including non-jeep enthusiasts. When attempting an obstacle follow the three strikes and you're out. This will keep large rides from becoming congested.
